MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

BETWEEN

CHARLES DARWIN UNIVERSITY

And

UNIVERSITY OF MACEDONIA

Charles Darwin University, Darwin, Northern Territory, Australia and the University of Macedonia, Thessaloniki, Greece agree to promote international cooperation and understanding for the mutual benefit of our institutions and the internationalisation of higher education.

1. Charles Darwin University (CDU) and University of Macedonia (UOM) will use their best endeavours to establish mutually beneficial collaboration in research, teaching and exchange in areas of shared interest and expertise which may include the following activities.

   ➢ Exchange of academic staff for teaching and research collaboration
   ➢ Collaboration in research projects
   ➢ Joint PhD supervision
   ➢ Joint master's degree
   ➢ Student exchange and short term study abroad programs
   ➢ Participation in conferences, seminars and symposia of mutual interest
   ➢ Collaboration on third party funded educational activities

2. Before any of the activities referenced above in Paragraph 1 may be implemented, both parties shall consult and negotiate the development of specific programs of cooperation. The terms of any specific program will be the subject of a separate written agreement prior to the implementation of any specific program or activity. Any program specific agreement duly signed will become an integral part of this Memorandum of Understanding.
3. The parties agree that each activity undertaken pursuant to the MOU shall be dependent on the availability of funds, and neither Party may call upon the other for funding to meet any advance expenditure obligations.

4. This Memorandum of Understanding is effective from the date of signature by both parties and will be valid for five years with an option to extend subject to agreement by both parties. Either Party may terminate this Memorandum of Understanding at any time, by giving three months prior notice in writing to the other Party.

5. Each party shall designate a person or office to serve as liaison for the relationship established by this MOU. Either party may change its own designated liaison contact by sending written notification to the other party of such change. Refer to Schedule 1 for liaison officer details.

6. This document constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and all prior discussions, agreements and understandings between the parties, whether verbal or in writing, are superseded by this MOU. This MOU may be amended only by means of a written instrument signed by authorised representatives of both parties.
