

Born in Drama. At a very early age, he attended Greek traditional dance courses and later on, he turned to bouzouki lessons. He started conservatory studies (theory and classical violin) and attended oud lessons. He completed his university studies graduating from the department of Music Studies, Ionian University.

He currently lives in Thessaloníki and works as an Assistant Professor at the Department of Music Science and Art, University of Macedonia, where he teaches the course Musical Idioms of Greece and their Interaction with the Geology of the Area, Interpretation and Performance, and also the Specializations on Three-strings Bouzouki and Tamboura.