

Michael Karanikos is born and raised in the town of Komotini, eastern Greece, where he started his first trombone lessons at the local music high school. He graduated from the University of Macedonia (Department of Music Science and Art) and got his trombone diploma from the State Conservatory of Thessaloniki. Since 2016 he teaches the trombone at the University of Macedonia. Since 2014 he has co-operated with various Greek orchestras and ensembles such as the Greek National (Radio) Symphony Orchestra, the Greek Radio Contemporary Orchestra, the Thessaloniki City Symphony Orchestra and the Thessaloniki City Concert Band. As a trombonist living in the city, he participates in numerous cultural events, concerts and recordings with various ensembles and modern bands.