

George Borovas is Special Teaching Stuf (STS) in Serbian language at the Department of Balkan Slavik and Oriental Studies, School of Economics and Arial Studis, University of Macedonia. He holds tutor degree from Teachers College "Ivo Andric" in Serbia, Bachelor Degree from the Department of Elementary Education, School of Education University of Western Macedonia and a Mastersof Science Degree in Economic and Political Governance of SE Europe. His Research Interests include: Nationalism, The relationship between language and national identity, The relationship between politics and culture in the formation of national identities, The role of cultural identities in ethnic conflicts such as the role they can play in creation multicultural societies.