

Vasilis Zigeridis was born in 1992 in Serres, Greece. He graduated from the music high school in Serres, where he started studying music and especially the Kanun.

In 2010 he started his studies in the University of Macedonia, Thessaloniki in the Department of Musical Science and Art, with a specialization in Greek Traditional Music and the kanun, under the supervision of the professor Ms. A. Zachariadou.

He has attended various seminars with Evgenios Boulgaris, Sofia Lampropoulou, Kostas Anastasiñadis and Goksel Baktagir.

Some of the projects he has taken part in are: «Ex silintio», «Latinitas Nostras», the chamber music orchestra «Contra tempo», choir «voici contra tempo», Heliodromio, Christos Papadopoulos Quintet, Alenti Quintet, Giannis Papageorgiou, Revans, Nikos Xidakis, Yiannis Dionisiou, Dilek Koc, Matoula Zamani and more.

Accompanying these artists and groups he has performed in many concerts in Greece and abroad.

Since 2018 he has been teaching the Kanun in the Department of Music Science and Art in the University of Macedonia. This academic year, 2019-2020, he is teaching the Kanun in the Music High School of Thessaloniki.